product PAN
standout Inspired by forms both geometric and organic, the duo's simple faucet is part of a broad product range offered in a spectrum of metallic, white, and dark finishes including this soft-touch black. zucchettikos.it

product Moka
standout The London architect updates the classic stovetop espresso maker, originally designed by Alberto Alessi's grandfather, with a double-funnel filter (for espresso or drip coffee) and an induction-ready magnetic base. alessi.com

product Petra
standout The Italian designers conceived a collection of sleek in- or outdoor basins and countertops fabricated of Cemento-skin, a concrete that's highly dirt resistant yet boasts a soft, natural finish reminiscent of polished stone.
